Special Issue

INVESTIGATE

What the ECA does for our community.

Snowplowing.

The Edgebrook Community Association has ensured the side streets of Edgebrook are plowed. Winter in Chicago can be brutal and fighting your way down a clogged side street is no one's idea of a good time. Membership dues keep our neighborhood mobile.

Gardening.

The Ginny Mose Memorial Garden is just one of the green spaces the ECA tends. We also keep Metra looking shipshape. Volunteers participate by adopting green areas and keeping them tidy. The Edgebrook Branch Library benefited from ECA-inspired volunteers, who improved the garden area by the south entrance.

ANTICIPATE

Meetings.

The ECA partners with organizations like the Edgebrook Historical Society, North Branch Arts, and the Edgebrook Branch Library to offer educational, entertaining, and perfect-for-the-entire-family events. Performances, live theater, puppetry, concerts, presentations, public awareness talks, and garden walks were brought to you by the ECA. All meetings and events are free and open to the general public.

You're invited to investigate something new at an ECA meeting.

Parades, celebrations, and conversations.

Edgebrook celebrates holidays with egg hunts, parades, cookie walks, picnics with hot dogs and all-American brownies, concerts, and more. Every event is an opportunity to share good times with neighbors and friends. Join us in these anticipated events.

Schools and scouts.

Hundreds of school children participate in the ECA's July 4th poster contest and parents benefit from our High School Options meetings. The ECA works closely with local scout troops.

PARTICIPATE

We ask for your support today.

Each year we ask Edgebrook residents to support their community by pledging $30 to the Edgebrook Community Association. Your pledge allows us to accomplish our goals.

We are proud of our community and promise to be a voice for Edgebrook, to offer exciting meetings and neighborhood gatherings, and to continue the fine tradition of community service.

Visit <http://edgebrookcommunity.org> to pledge online or check your mailbox for your membership kit. And, you can always reach us at talk2eca@gmail.com. We'd love to hear from you.

Thank you, 2013 Edgebrook Community Association Members!

You became members because you want the best for our neighborhood.
