

The ECA Year in Review

Welcome to a New Year!

The Edgebrook Community Association (ECA) wishes our community a happy new year. Thank you for supporting the neighborhood with your contributions to the ECA membership fund. You participated in ECA-sponsored events with your family and friends. And you volunteered on ECA projects throughout 2011... Thank You!

Remembrances of Things Past...

As we prepare for 2012, let's remember 2011—specifically two events that illustrate the true value of the ECA.

The first, of course, was the Blizzard of 2011. Edgebrook's side streets were quickly cleared of snow, thanks to our snow plow service.

The second memorable event was the Aldermanic election. Voting was so close in our wards that a run-off election was required. The ECA brought the four run-off candidates together so that you could ask them the questions that mattered to you.

The ECA is proud of our community service. Allow us to share highlights of the past year.

Safety and Beautification

Traffic Congestion and Safety – We worked with Alderman Arena to contest a drive through zoning variance at the often gridlocked corner of Central and Devon.

Triangle Cleanup – The ECA, neighborhood volunteers, and GreenCorp, finished the revitalization of the Jinny Mose Garden.

Neighborhood Connection Project – Board Member Jac Charlier is spearheading the mission to fix safety problems with the retaining wall at Lehigh and Hiawatha.

Snowplowing – Who doesn't remember the blizzard of 2011? Year in and year out Jody McDowell's team goes into action whenever the snowfall tops four inches.

Metra Passenger Shelter – When Metra announced plans to remove the outbound shelter on the east platform, the ECA mobilized and saved the shelter.

Storm Sewer Repair – Working with Alderman O'Connor's office, the ECA was able to get the clogged sewers along Lehigh restored to working order.

You Want Me to Pay What? – Edgebrook residents were able to talk to property tax authorities who offered tips on how to reduce the property owner's burden.

High School Options: We helped parents identify the right school for their future high schooler.

Supporting Edgebrook's Branch Library

Edgebrook favorite Betsey Means appeared as Agatha Christie in Packing for Syria with Agatha Christie. She returned later in the year as Emily Dickinson.

Hollywood divas Bette Davis, Elizabeth Taylor, and Judy Garland were brought to life by Roberta Randall.

Parents and children who love the Fancy Nancy book series were entertained at a special program.

The Milliken Puppets presented a holiday show to a standing room only audience. It was live children's theater at its best.

Without your generous support, this page would be blank.

Our membership hasn't flagged during these trying economic times. You have repeatedly shown that you value what the ECA offers to the neighborhood by renewing your membership each year. We are proud of you, our members, and pledge to continue to be a voice for the community, to offer exciting meetings and neighborhood gatherings and to make Edgebrook even better in 2012.

Visit <http://edgebrookcommunity.org> to renew your membership online or check your mailbox for our membership enrollment kit to renew by mail. We are all neighbors. Together, we make Edgebrook a great Chicago neighborhood!

Holiday Festivities

Edgebrook residents came out en masse to enjoy the annual neighborhood shindigs we sponsor.

Easter Egg Hunt – more eggs and more kids.

Fourth of July Parade & Picnic – two aldermen as grand marshals, a barbershop quartet, and a jazz band.

Triangle Lighting Ceremony – record attendance thanks to the sparkling lights, joyful caroling, and warming fire pit.

Holiday Party – breakfast with the "Real" Santa.

General Meetings

The Candidates: Neighbor to Neighbor – Your opportunity to talk to the Aldermanic Run-Off Candidates.

The Real Billy Caldwell – This Edgebrook Historical Society coproduction dispelled myths about Billy Caldwell.

This year's photos were captured at ECA events and throughout the neighborhood. Start with the photo circle at the top of this page. At the nine o'clock position is Tom Wolff grilling hamburgers at the July 4th Picnic. Clockwise from Tom is his volunteer crew—assembling burgers, brats, and dogs. All of the other smiling faces were seen at ECA-sponsored events, including the lady in the red boa—Roberta Randall. At the bottom of the page are seasonal photos from Edgebrook gardens and trails.

There are more happy faces from the Fourth of July Picnic at the top of page two. Our list of 2011 members is preceded by an easter egg hunter and ends with one of the fabulous Milliken puppets.

Thank you, 2011 Edgebrook Community Association Members!

You showed true community spirit by becoming members in 2011. Keep the spirit in the coming year.
