

The Egg Hunt • Clean & Green Day • Seed & Plant Swap
YES, IT REALLY MUST BE SPRING!

What do we do with all these eggs?
Scramble for them.

- Saturday, April 20, 10 AM, rain or shine.
- Jeff Green “Choo Choo” Park (Algonquin & Tahoma).
- Children, ages 0-9.
- Hunt for colorful treat-filled eggs. Find the “golden ticket” egg, redeemable for a special prize at the ECA booth.
- Remember your camera. Take photos with the ECA Easter Bunny.

- Visit the ECA Members’ booth where nonmembers can join the ECA. And members will crack open a special egg and receive a commemorative button (while supplies last).
- Mingle with your neighbors. Welcome spring to Edgebrook.

Seed & Plant Swap

Saturday, May 11, 10 AM–1 PM, Edgebrook Library

The ECA and Edgebrook Library can help our neighbors be successful gardeners.

Attend the Third Annual Seed & Plant Swap and pick up plants and advice, share gardening stories, contribute seeds that did well in last year’s garden, and take home a plant you’d like to try this year.

Special Presentation at 11AM

Lisa Hilgenberg, horticulturist at the Chicago Botanic Garden and voice of Weekly Gardening Minute on WBBM Newsradio, will discuss vegetable gardening, organic techniques, companion planting, and season extension. Lisa’s presentation will be followed by a Walk & Talk in the Swap, so please come with your questions for our fruit and vegetable wizard!

ECA members, say hello and pick up a Seed and Plant Journal.

Nothing to swap? Seeds and seedlings have been donated by our generous neighbors. Return the favor next year when you bring in your successful seeds and share your gardening stories.

Be part of our growing tradition.

Chicago Clean & Green Day

Saturday, April 27, 9 AM – 1 PM, The Triangle

On Saturday, April 27, the ECA will work with neighbors and community groups to polish our neighborhood.

Meet ECA Beautification Director Caryn Meyers at the Triangle (corner of Lehigh & Devon) and she will get you going.

Come for an hour or the whole morning.

Your help will be greatly appreciated. The City provides rakes, bags, and shovels but you will need to bring your own gloves. Working together, we will make Edgebrook sparkle!

Revised Constitution & By-Laws

The ECA is revising its Constitution & By-Laws. Visit edgebrookcommunity.org to review the changes. The ECA will ask members to approve the revised Constitution at a future General Meeting. Details will be posted on our website.

Women in Comics

with Jill Thompson

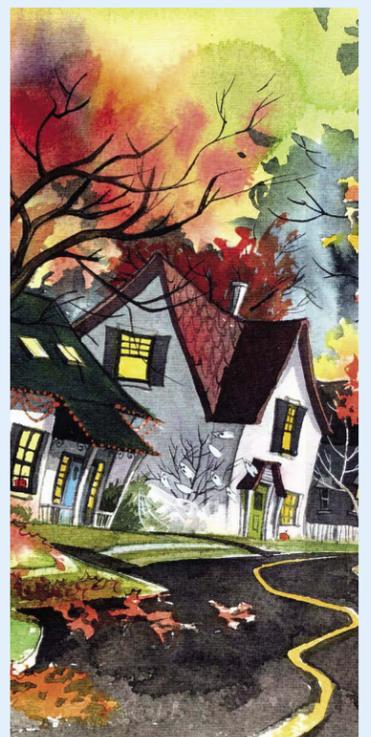

Saturday, May 4, 11 AM,
 Edgebrook Library

Jill Thompson, award-winning artist and creator of Scary Godmother, will talk about comic creation, storytelling and her experiences as a female comic creator. She’ll cover scripting, plot development, layout, and art to explain what it takes to make comics a reality.

Jill will also do a live art demonstration and while fielding questions.

Online registration is required. Visit edgebrookcommunity.org for a registration link.

ECA members are proud to underwrite library programming.
