EDGEBROOK COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION
COUNTRY LIVING IN THE CITY

Greetings Edgebrook Residents

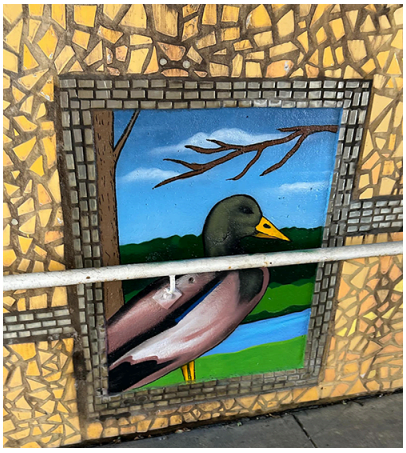
A bit of rain didn't ruin our parade! Despite some drizzle in the air, our community came out strong for the July 4 parade last month. Marti Corcoran did us proud as this year's Grand Marshal, and many of our community groups followed close behind. Thank you to everyone who attended and to those who came to the post-parade picnic for good food, good tunes, and great company.

ECA Mix & Mingle - RESCHEDULED

The next ECA Mix & Mingle will now be held September 12 from 5:00–7:00pm at Creativo Garden (on Kinzua, across from the Metra station). Join us for light appetizers, refreshments, live music, and a magician to entertain the kids. All are welcome - stop by to meet your neighbors and learn about all that Edgebrook has to offer!

Community Beautification

The black benches and trash receptacles in the Edgebrook business district were recently repainted thanks to funds from Everyday Edgebrook. Local resident Noreen Davidson worked with the ECA and several local business owners to make this project happen. The benches and trash cans were initially installed during a streetscape project more than 20 years ago. A special thank you to Ewa from PetWants North, Bruce from A Vintage Bloom, and Carly from Bottles and Cans.

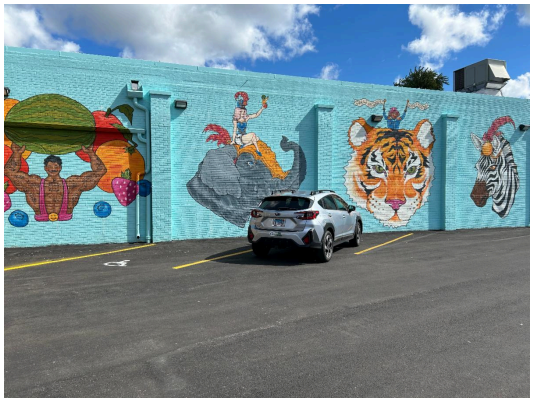


A group of our dedicated ECA board members weathered the heat to repaint the rails of the underpass at Lehigh and Hiawatha Avenues. With the newly refreshed mosaic and a fresh coat of paint on the handrails, this artistic gem in our neighborhood is worth a visit if you're nearby.

Around Town

Here are some sites of note around our community.

We love the beautiful new mural on the side of Happy Foods!



Check out this pumpkin garden in the parkway of 6309 North LeMai.

Who We Support

The ECA recently donated July 4 picnic fare to the New Hope Community Food Pantry to help their clients celebrate this year's Independence Day.

We also sponsored multiple Read to a Four-Legged Friend with Rainbow Animal Assisted Therapy events at the Edgebrook Branch of the Chicago Public Library. These events gave children ages 5-10 the opportunity to read to a therapy dog and boost their confidence to read for fun at their own pace.

Other Upcoming Events

Mark your calendars for these upcoming ECA events!

October: Spookiest House Judging

November 30: Holiday Tree Lighting and a Visit with Santa

TBD: Community Meeting on Safety
